Re: Year-End Crime Statistics Comparison 2006-2015

RECOMMENDATION

Receive and file.

CONCLUSION

There were 18,332 total police-reported crimes[1] in Regina in 2015, which was an increase of 4.6% compared to the previous year but a 23.2% decrease compared to ten years earlier. The increase in total crime compared to 2014 was driven by increases in Property Crime, specifically Motor Vehicle Theft (+21.4%), Mischief / Wilful Damage (+11.7%), Theft (+3.6%) and Break and Enter (+3.1%).

However, there were decreases in both Crime Against the Person (-1.5%) and Other Criminal Code violations (-2.4%) compared to 2014.

BACKGROUND

Twice each year, once at mid-year and once at year-end, the Regina Police Service provides an analysis of reported crime in Regina over the previous ten-year period. This report compares data compiled from January 1 to December 31 for the period of 2006 through 2015.

Measuring crime statistics over time is effective for identifying trends. Data is gathered in the same manner each year to ensure the analysis is reliable. Absolute crime counts, rather than crime rates or crime severity, are the basis of this analysis.

These statistics are not intended for comparison with other jurisdictions that may use different methodologies or have different reporting criteria.

[1] Total Crime is an account of Crimes Against the Person, Crimes Against Property, and Other Criminal Code violations only. Criminal Code Traffic and the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act offences are excluded from this total. These same categories are excluded from the Crime Rate released by Statistics Canada each year.

The number of Impaired Drive occurrences increased by 1.0% from 2014 and by 66.6% from 2006. Dear Sir:

Subject: Letter of Appreciation to the Cultural & Community Diversity Unit

I want to pass on my sincere thank you to Sgt. William Hayden of your Cultural & Community Diversity Unit for assisting in our Recruit Training Program for new Highway Traffic Officers. Part of our six month training program requires our recruits to receive Cultural Diversity Training.

In 2015 we had two recruit classes and Sgt. Hayden agreed to assist in both. He arranged for himself, Cst. Dale McArthur and Heather Shepard to come to our class and provide valuable and informative knowledge on other cultures. One session included participation in a smudge ceremony at the First Nations University. The presenters were well prepared and demonstrated excellent enthusiasm throughout the training. The feedback I received from our new recruits was very positive.

Some of the 'extra" duties performed by your staff often go unnoticed or appreciated. I want to make sure that your unit's hard work, effort, enthusiasm and professionalism are recognized. In previous years Tracey Dunnigan presented this training and did an outstanding job as well.

Please share this appreciation with William and other members of the unit for going well above and beyond what we expected.

Sincerely

RE: Wendy Stone, Crime Prevention Strategist
Lance Dudar, The Regina Intersectoral Partnership, Coordinator

Dear Chief Hagen:

I am writing this letter to provide my appreciation for time that Wendy Stone and Lance Dudar provided to the students registered in my JS 319 course last semester.

In the previous semester, Wendy and Lance provided a guest lecture to my JS 319 (Criminological Theory) class that provided the students in the course with a presentation on "The Regina Intersectoral Partnership" (TRIP). The students had an assignment for the course wherein they were to analyze a "program" using criminological theory. It seeks to bring the theoretical world in touch with the practical world. Many students chose TRIP as their program for evaluation as a result of the dynamic presentation provided. Wendy and Lance were energetic in their presentation and really engaged the students. They provided an overview of TRIP that provided students with a real-world practical approach to crime prevention.

In closing, I wanted to share with you my appreciation for the contribution of Wendy Stone and Lance Dudar to the academic and practical learning for students in my JS 319 class.

Sincerely,

Nick Jones, Ph.D.

I am writing this letter to provide my appreciation for time that Corporal Chad Bourassa has provided to the students in the Department of Justice Studies. In performing his duties as the University of Regina Liaison Officer Corporal Bourassa has served the students in the Department of Justice Studies admirably.

In the previous semester, Corporal Bourassa agreed to provide a guest lecture to my JS 318 (Restorative Justice) class that provided the students in the course with a firsthand policing perspective regarding the role of police in utilizing alternative measures approaches thereby employing a more restorative approach to addressing crime in Regina than the more often considered retributive approach of arrest. Chad really engaged with the students and many of them commented to me how appreciative they were of his presentation. He was able to clearly articulate that the role of the police is far more than just law enforcement; and that the police can take an active role in building the community through alternative approaches to addressing crime.

Corporal Bourassa has also employed an open-door policy with regard to the students in the Bachelor of Arts in Police Studies. Although I do not know how many students have taken him up on the opportunity to speak with him regarding a career in policing, he has made every effort to be accessible to them should they wish to seek his advice or ask him about what a career in policing is all about.

In closing, Corporal Bourassa has contributed to the academic and practical learning for students in the Department of Justice Studies. His efforts are appreciated.

Sincerely,

Nick Jones, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, & Chair, Department of Justice Studies

Cpl. C. Bourassa, Thank you for providing this informative lecture; Well done.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing regarding my experience with Cst. Slater (#839).
On Saturday January 23, 2016, my 17-year-old daughter was involved in a minor collision. After realizing several hours later that she was experiencing some minor discomfort in her back, neck and shoulders, we decided it was best to report the collision to police in case it became necessary to file an injury claim.
On Sunday January 24, 2016, after failed attempts to encourage my daughter to report to police on her own, I accompanied her to RPS to assist her with her report. She has no fear of police or authority but struggles with social anxiety and finds it difficult to speak with people directly especially in unfamiliar situations. I have always tried to instill independence in my children but sometimes a little support is more effective.
Cst. Slater was very friendly, kind and patient with her and spoke with her clearly and calmly. I appreciate that Cst. Slater spoke directly with my daughter rather than addressing me as my presence was for support only. I was not in the vehicle, nor was the vehicle mine and I prefer to let my daughter handle these things on her own.
Thank you Cst. Slater for making this a simple, anxiety free experience for my daughter. This will make it much easier for her to do this on her own if it becomes necessary again.

Sincerely,

Stacey McPeek

Dear Sir/Madam:

Your File:

My Mother was involved in a collision on the corner of Winnipeg Street and College Avenue on January 21, 2016 at about 1:00 P.M. Mom and all the family can't thank the police officers enough for the kindness shown to Mom at the scene. They treated Mom with the utmost respect and were so nice to her. When I arrived to pick Mom up the police officer who was still there explained everything to me so I knew exactly what to do to start the claim.

Please convey our thanks and appreciation to the officers involved. What could have been a totally negative experience for us was anything but because of the kindness of the people who looked after Mom.

Sincerely

Subject: The importance of CPR

Good morning,
As we near the end of block 4 of 20 weeks of block training, I wanted to share a story with everyone to remind us why ongoing training is so important.

After last Friday's CPR/AED recertification, members were leaving the Crossroads building and heading back to the main office. They came across a male in medical distress. Our Members immediately recognized the seriousness of the situation and provided care to the male who had likely suffered from a heart attack.
The following members should be recognized for their quick thinking and life-saving actions:

Constable Cory PATRON
Constable Wade LEWIS
Constable Scott DOUGLAS
Constable Steve NORTON
Constable Jason PURVES
Constable Frank KOVACS
Corporal Jason WILKINSON

Cst. Patron knew that an AED was available within the Crossroads fitness facility. He ran back and retrieved the AED and members then delivered two shocks. EMS arrived and delivered two more shocks. The male regained consciousness and was transported to hospital for further care.

A reminder that AED's are available in the following locations within our RPS facilities:
Crossroads fitness facility
Front Desk
Comm Centre

2nd floor in museum area
Detention

Also a reminder that if any of our civilian staff wish to participate in CPR training please check with your supervisor and the block training schedule to sign up.

Leanne Smyth Asked to perform one of the hardest jobs there is then criticized no matter how they do it by the very same people who refuse to step up and do the job themselves. Unreal amount of scrutiny that police officers go through...almost an inhumane amount. Let's hope situations like these can help ALL people not just the police or the officers involved. Some more "Good Mood Monday" vibes!

Anson (centre) came to our office this morning to pick up a copy of our 2015 Annual Report Calendar and to get a photo with a few of our officers. Anson is on the cover of our 2015 Annual Report along with one of our officers who was handing out high-fives, bubbles and RPS tattoos at the Cystic Fibrosis Canada-South Saskatchewan Great Strides Walk in May last year.

Anson's dad said that before the Great Strides Walk, Anson was afraid of police officers. After meeting some of our friendly officers at the event, Anson is a huge fan and gets excited when he sees officers and police cars! Anson was handing out high-fives like it was his job this morning to our officers and beaming the whole time. Thanks for stopping by this morning Anson & Ryan, and for being our "Calendar Boy"!

January 26, 2016

Dear Mayor Fougere,

I would like to take the opportunity, on behalf of the Canadian Association of Police Governance (CAPG) Board of Directors, to sincerely thank you for your commitment to our organization over the years.

As a member of the CAPG, you have helped us cultivate strategic directions that support our members in their vital roles as police board/commission members. We believe that a collaborative approach between our organizations can effect positive results on the municipal, provincial and national levels.

We are proud to report on a number of key successes the Association has seen in 2015, with the support of members like you.

In April 2015, the CAPG hosted a Governance Summit in Toronto entitled "The Police Governance Paradigm - Tectonic Shift or Timid Adjustments: What will it take for Board Members and Chiefs to Succeed in the new Paradigm?" The Summit generated rich dialogue and sold out in its inaugural year. With such a strong response we hope to continue developing seminars of this nature.

Our 26th Annual Conference in Markham, ON was a great success. Feedback from the conference evaluation indicated a very high satisfaction rate. A number of our delegates requested that our conferences deliver more police governance-specific session and we are pleased to announce that our 27th Annual Conference, being held in Ottawa, ON on August 12-14, will be delivering a program more focused on how the various topics affect boards/commissions. This year we will be exploring "Ethics in Policing and the Role of Governance." I hope you will have the opportunity to join us.

We have updated our Mission and Vision statements and refocused our Strategic Directions to ensure we are delivering the services that our members need in the most effective manner possible. In the same vein, we have regrouped our committees which now include: Governance Committee, Member Engagement and Advocacy Committee, Research and Policy Committee, Conference Committee, and the First Nations Police Governance Council. I would like to encourage you and the members of your organization to consider participating in one of our committees. We greatly value the knowledge and experience you can contribute to the important work our committees undertake.

As we develop the services we provide to our members, we hope that you will continue to see the value of being a CAPG member in 2016. I welcome you to discover some of the new services we will be launching in 2016, including our online Learning Portal, exclusive to CAPG members, as well as a full roster of online training opportunities throughout the year with our CAPG webinar series. # Memo to CAPG Members

The CAPG has transitioned its year-end from calendar year to fiscal. As a result of this transition, the CAPG membership year will also transition to a fiscal year, with your membership for the 2015 year lapsing on March 31, 2016. This means that current CAPG members receive an additional three months of membership with the CAPG at no cost.

The CAPG membership dues for 2016 will increase by 2.5% but if you are interested in renewing early we are offering you the opportunity to pay your 2016 membership renewals at the 2015 rates if payment is received by March 1, 2016.
