Re: Tamra Keepness Investigation

RECOMMENDATION

The Board of Police Commissioners is continuing to offer a $50,000 reward, until December 31, 2016, for information that leads to determining the whereabouts of Tamra Keepness.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service believes continuing to offer a reward for information about the whereabouts of Tamra Keepness may elicit needed evidence.

BACKGROUND

Tamra Jewel Keepness was last seen in her home in the 1800 block of Ottawa Street in the evening hours of Monday, July 5, 2004. She was noted missing by family members during the morning hours of Tuesday, July 6, 2004. Since receiving the report of her disappearance at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday, July 6, 2004, the Regina Police Service has conducted a comprehensive search and investigation.

At a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners on July 13, 2004, the Board authorized a $25,000 reward for information leading to the discovery of the location of Tamra Keepness. The closing date for the reward was originally December 31, 2004. In July 2014 the Board of Police Commissioners increased the reward to $50,000.

The Board has previously approved the continuance of the reward in each of the subsequent years of 2005 to 2015.

DISCUSSION

The Regina Police Service continues its investigation into the disappearance of Tamra Keepness. However, after following through on the information received, the file has not been solved and Tamra has not been located. The missing person file of Tamra Keepness is assigned to the Cold Case Unit, where the investigation into the disappearance of Tamra Keepness continues. New information pertaining to this incident could be pivotal in bringing the investigation to a conclusion. In order to encourage people with direct knowledge to come forward, it is recommended the Board of Police Commissioners authorize the continuance of the $50,000 reward to December 31, 2016. The governance of the reward will continue to be held with the Board. The criteria will continue as set out in 2004, with the noted change in expiry date:

The reward of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($50,000) is to be awarded to the person, or persons, who in the sole opinion of the Board of Police Commissioners for the City of Regina, have submitted information to the Regina Police Service, leading directly to the discovery of the whereabouts of Tamra Jewel Keepness.

Person(s) criminally culpable for the disappearance of Tamra Jewel Keepness, member(s) of the family of Tamra Jewel Keepness, and employees of law enforcement or correctional agencies are not eligible to lay claim to the reward or any portion thereof.

In the event that more than one person has submitted information that would entitle them to a share thereof, the reward will be apportioned as deemed just by the Board of Police Commissioners for the City of Regina.

This reward expires December 31, 2016.

The Regina Police Service will review the need to continue the reward beyond 2016 and make recommendations to the Board in December 2016.

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

The Regina Police Service has not specifically set aside $50,000 in its 2016 budget to cover the expense of a claimed reward. If the reward is claimed, the Regina Police Service will make every effort to manage the expenditure within its 2016 budget.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

The reward may elicit information critical to identifying those responsible for the disappearance or the locating of Tamra Keepness.

Other Implications

Reward Guidelines:

- If you have information regarding this investigation contact the Regina Police Service, Cold Case Unit.
- In order to qualify for the reward, the RPS requires persons to provide their name and address and a complete statement of their knowledge of the case to investigators. They may be required to testify. No confidentiality can be offered.
- In the event the information provided leads to the location of Tamra Keepness, you may choose to file a claim for the reward. If you do so, you must file a claim by letter addressed to the Chief of Police, 1717 Osler Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, S4P 3W3. You may choose to mail it via regular mail or courier. Please ensure you keep a dated copy of your claim letter and any receipts.
- The Regina Police Service Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police at their sole discretion will determine the portion of the reward to be paid to any claimant(s). Only persons who have filed a claim to the reward will be considered.

- No member of a federal, provincial or municipal police agency including full or part-time employees or volunteers, corrections agency employees, full-time or volunteers or their family members are entitled to file a claim for a reward. Persons engaged in the judicial system either as employees or contractors are excluded from claiming a reward. This also includes lawyers, employees and family members of firms that were the victim of a crime.
- Persons who provided statements to police in this investigation before a reward is offered are not eligible to claim a reward.

COMMUNICATIONS

The offer of a $50,000 reward will remain on the Regina Police Service website

Re: Triple Homicide Investigation

RECOMMENDATION

That the Board of Police Commissioners offer a reward of $50,000.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw and Seven June Htoo.

The reward will expire December 31, 2016.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service is investigating a triple homicide which occurred August 2010. The investigation will continue until all investigative avenues have been exhausted.

BACKGROUND

On August 6, 2010 the bodies of Gray Nay Htoo (31yrs), his wife, Maw Maw (28yrs) and their son, Seven June Htoo (3yrs) were located in their residence at 323 Oakview Drive. The victims were Karen refugees from a Thailand refugee camp who had lived in Regina for approximately two years. Since the beginning of the investigation one member from the RCMP was assigned. The RCMP member is of Karen descent and has lived and worked within the Regina Karen community.

There have been over 200 interviews many of which involved Karen speaking people. Karen translators were brought in from communities across Canada and one from the United States. At different points in the investigation there have been as many as 25 Regina Police Service investigators assigned as well as numerous RCMP officers.

The investigative team has worked in conjunction with various sections of the RCMP, the FBI and other police services utilizing multiple police investigative techniques to gather substantial evidence.

In July 2015 the file and investigation was assigned to the Regina Police Service Cold Case Coordinator. The Cold Case Coordinators' responsibility is to continue the investigation, follow-up on any outstanding tasks and follow-up on any new information which comes to light.

DISCUSSION

The Regina Police Service continues to hold the murders of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw Htoo and Seven June Htoo as a priority. The investigation has been ongoing since August 6, 2010. The team investigating the murders was made up of five investigators. This team was dedicated full time to the investigation. The investigators had ongoing meetings with the Crown Prosecutors who had been assigned to the file.

Persons of interest have been identified and several investigative avenues have been used. The investigators believe there are people within the community who have information which could be crucial to this investigation and bring it to a successful conclusion. The investigators have reached out to engage the Karen community to meet, in order to build a better understanding. The meetings have been to share information with respect to the Canadian justice system; the role of police and role of the courts. The attempt is to demystify policing in Canada versus the Refugee Camp Security system. The community has been receptive to the dialogue and has participated in the meetings; asking questions, providing support to the efforts of the investigators. The investigators believe the continuation of the reward may stimulate more information to come forward, especially given the education and outreach that the investigators have done.

The Regina Police Service will review the need to continue the reward beyond 2016 and make recommendations to the Board in December 2016.

- Upon completion of the case in court where a conviction occurs, the Regina Police Service Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police at their sole discretion will determine the portion of the reward to be paid to any claimant(s). Only persons who have filed a claim to the reward will be considered.
- No member of a federal, provincial or municipal police agency including full or part-time employees or volunteers, corrections agency employees, full-time or volunteers or their family members are entitled to file a claim for a reward. Persons engaged in the judicial system either as employees or contractors are excluded from claiming a reward. This also includes lawyers, employees and family members of firms that were the victim of a crime.
- No reward will be paid until the case is concluded in the courts and a conviction occurs for the offense that the reward was offered for. Any appeals must be concluded with a conviction.
- Persons who provided statements to police in this investigation before a reward is offered are not eligible to claim a reward.

COMMUNICATIONS

The continued $50,000 reward will be communicated on the Regina Police Service website and through other media sources.

Re: Trespass to Property Initiative – 6-month review

RECOMMENDATION

Receive and File.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service is working proactively with businesses to help address the issue of unwanted guests on their property. The Trespass to Property Initiative was implemented in the Spring of 2015. This initiative empowers businesses to ban individuals who are repeatedly disruptive at the business by being intoxicated, harassing customers, shoplifting, or engaging in other unruly behaviour. The process is allowed under current legislation. Once a person is banned, police officers can issue Summary Offence tickets to those who ignore the ban. The Regina Police Service has educated business owners on this process, particularly in the downtown area. This initiative has now been implemented for six-months. This year, disturbance related incidents in the downtown area have decreased by 18% compared to the same six-month period in 2014.

BACKGROUND

Regina's downtown is a highly populated area. Some individuals who frequent the downtown area have been the source of a disproportionately high number of police calls for service for public intoxication, harassing customers, shoplifting, or engaging in other unruly behaviour.

In early 2015, the Regina Police Service responded to this community concern by implementing the Trespass to Property Initiative. This initiative utilizes legislation under The Trespass to Property Act to address unruly and disruptive conduct at businesses. Specifically, section 3 enables police to issue a summary offence ticket to individuals who attend a business after being issued a ban prohibiting them from doing so. In the event that an individual continues to violate a ban, officers may utilize the Mischief section of The Criminal Code to further reinforce these sanctions.

DISCUSSION

Some individuals who frequent Regina's downtown area are responsible for generating a disproportionately high number of police calls for service involving disturbance type events. These disturbance calls have been steadily increasing. In 2012 there were 2,508 calls for service in the downtown area. These calls increased by 4% in 2013 to 2,607 calls for service, and increased again in 2014 by another 16% to 3,033 calls for service.

In early 2015, the Regina Police Service responded to the increasing number of disturbances in the downtown area by implementing the Trespass to Property Initiative; providing better collaboration between businesses and police. If required, participating businesses can issue a ban to an individual who engages in a prohibited activity as described in The Trespass to Property Act. If a ban has been issued and the banned individual fails to abide by it, police can issue a ticket under The Summary Offences Procedure Act, 1990. In the event that an individual continues to violate a business ban, officers may be able to utilize the Mischief section of The Criminal Code to further reinforce these sanctions. As a result of this collaborative initiative, incidents involving disturbances in and around downtown businesses have decreased by 18% compared to the same time period in 2014.

A number of participating businesses have issued ban forms to individuals but have not yet submitted them to the Regina Police Service. Some business owners are only contacting police if the individual disobeys the ban and returns to the business. Since launching the initiative, the Regina Police Service has received 136 ban forms and issued 38 Summary Offence Tickets under The Trespass to Property Act, in other words, only 28% of the ban forms received by police have resulted in tickets. Lastly, police have laid 1 Mischief charge under The Criminal Code in relation to the initiative.

The feedback from businesses and other participating organizations has been very positive. Most have reported that once a ban form has been issued, there are few incidents of recidivism.

Re: Monthly Crime Statistics – November 2015

RECOMMENDATION

Receive and file.

CONCLUSION

The crime statistics for the month of November 2015 reflect a decrease in Crimes Against the Person of [-3.3%] compared to November 2014, while Crimes Against Property show a 5.8% increase compared to November 2014. Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property show a combined year-to-date increase of 4.0%.

BACKGROUND

Each month, reports providing statistics for the City of Regina are presented to the Board for their review and information. This report will provide statistics for the month of November 2015. The Communications Centre statistics are included showing the total calls for service.

DISCUSSION

Crimes Against Property reflect an increase of 548 reported incidents over 2014, for an overall year-to-date increase of 5.8%. We have seen a decrease of [-11] reported incidents of Theft Under $5000 for a [-0.3%] decrease. There are 165 more reported incidents of Mischief / Wilful Damage for a 7.5% increase.

Thefts of Auto rates have increased by 147 incidents for an overall increase of 19.4% in our year-to-date statistics. The Regina Police Service in conjunction with its partners in the Stolen Auto Strategy continues to pay constant attention to this issue.

Crimes Against the Person reflect a year-to-date decrease of [-79] fewer incidents over November 2014 for a [-3.3%] decrease. There were 24 reported Robberies in November for a year-to-date increase of 15 incidents or an increase of 7.3%.

Overall the Regina Police Service has received 469 more reported incidents of Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property combined in 2015 over 2014 for a 4.0% increase.

There were a total of 6,284 dispatched Calls for Service in November for a year-to-date increase of 1.6% and Alarm Calls for Service show a year-to-date decrease of [-15.5%].

Officer Solomon badge #634
Officer Davies badge #837

I was in a horrific accident on Aug. 28, 2014. The above mentioned Officers were at the scene and while I remember very little of what happened, my sister really appreciated their assistance. I'd really like to thank them for their help.

Approximately 2 weeks after the accident Officer Solomon came to the hospital to see how I was doing. His very kind gesture of concern really touched me. When a person is as severely injured as I was that gesture carries a whole lot of weight.

If you would pass on my thank you to them both, and to Officer Solomon for his "above & beyond" visit I would really appreciate it

S/Sgt. Audra Young
Sgt. Guy Criddle

Dear Sir,

I am a veteran who participated in the Remebrance Day Ceremony at the Brandt Centre on the 11th of this month. I must thank you, and through you, your wonderful Officers who helped the handicapped veterans on this occasion. They were kind, compassionat with much understanding and humour in taking care of us.

I must especially single out Staff Sergeant Audrey and Sergeant Guy(unfortunately, I didn't get their surnames) who were especially attentive to me by obtaining a wheelchair and 'driving' me in the final parade; on the way out, we had to ride up a steep ramp: I weigh 200 lbs, and thought Sgt Guy would need help -NO WAY! he zoomed me up that ramp at, I'm sure, well beyond the speed limit!

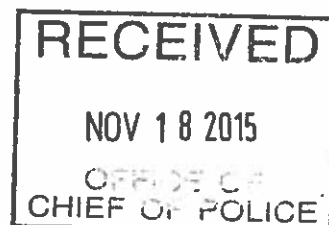

✓ Please let them know how grateful I am for having been so spoiled. May God bless all of your Staff. They are indeed "Regina's Best"!

Very sincerely uours,

LtCol Adrian S. Tatarinoff (Ret.)

Dear Ms. Fiddler:

I am writing to thank you for your invaluable contribution at the September 30th Knowledge Exchange on Specialized Victim Services for Families of Missing or Murdered Indigenous Women: Models, Practices and New Approaches. Your participation and commitment to sharing your knowledge has been, and continues to be, appreciated.

As you know, the objective of the Knowledge Exchange was to bring together organizations and agencies who have been funded through the Victims Fund to share approaches with each other, as well as with provincial and territorial victim services and police representatives. By doing so, we sought to increase capacity for the development and delivery of responsive victims services for families of missing or murdered Indigenous women.

Your contribution at the event permitted others who are working with and for families, from across Canada, the opportunity to learn more about your approach, what you have learned about how best to serve families, methods for overcoming challenges in advancing your work, and the various resources you draw on in assisting families. Thank you for taking time from your critical work to attend the Knowledge Exchange.

Sincerely,

Naomi Giff MacKinnon

Visit of Prime Minister Stephen Harper July 24, 2015

On behalf of the F Division RCMP, particularly F Division VIP Security Section we would like to thank your Police Service for assistance provided during the visit of Prime Minister Stephen Harper on July 24, 2015

✓ The visit was planned with minimal advance notice and your police service provided exceptional service and assistance as usual. I would also like to take this opportunity to single out Sgt Todd Gall who acted as your police service liaison for this visit.

Thank you again for your assistance and we look forward to working with you and your staff in the future.

Dear Sir:

2015 Federal Election

On behalf of the F Division RCMP, particularly F Division VIP Security Section we would like to thank your Police Service for assistance provided during the 2015 Federal Election.

✓ During the 78 day campaign your city was host to numerous visits from all three parties provided protection by the RCMP. We would like to identify the assistance of Sgts Alana Stach and Dwight Kosolofski who acted as liaison officers during these visits. The visits to Regina were sometimes very in depth and overlapped each other or last minute with minimal time to prepare. I would also like to thank the uniformed members who assisted with traffic duties and controlling protestors. Without their assistance those tasks would have been much more difficult to control.

Thank you again for your assistance and we look forward to working with you and your staff in the future.

Hi there! Today at about 2pm my car battery died on the corner of Sask Dr and Hamilton. One of your officers (a young, female, didnt get her name) saw this and turned around and parked behind me. She turned on her lights to let the other drivers know to go in the other lane to turn. Not only did she do this, she also called a tow truck for me as she seen that I was distressed as I was now late for work as well. She offered me to come sit in the police car, since my car didn't have power and she didnt want me to freeze. She stayed until the tow truck came, and on top all of that she drove me to work (which I could have walked since it was only a block away). Anyways, I just wanted to let her know that what she did for me was VERY appreciated. If you could track her down for me and thank her again 😊 She really made that situation so much better for myself. Thank you Regina Police Service!!

Don't GIVE Your Car Away; TAKE Your Keys

Hey Regina motorists: we know it is cold outside and 'tis the season to warm up your cars, but please don't leave them unlocked, with keys in the ignition. A warm car is a nice sight in the morning; an empty space, where your car used to be, is not. Over the weekend (Friday November 20, 2015 – Sunday November 22, 2015), there were 12 vehicles reported stolen to police. five of those vehicles were unlocked with the keys inside the vehi...

November 24, 2015 – Thanks Cst. Martin

Erin

Nov 24th, 9:38am

I would like to extend sincere gratitude to Cst. Martin for her caring and empathetic approach in dealing with my very serious motor vehicle accident. She was awesome. She made the situation comfortable, less stressful and made sure me and my daughter were safe and ok. I hope she sees this and realizes its police officers like HER that make a difference, Thank you again CST. Martin

November 25, 2015 – Police “Winter Rap Battle”

We were challenged to a rap battle by CTV Regina... here's our FUNKY take:

This weather
That ice cold
Chief Hagen
That white gold
This city got slipp'ry streets
And speedy drivers
Crashin' cars to pieces
Slippin', Slidin'
MVAs up in the city
Got snow tires and sandbags
Gotta protect yourself & drive pretty!

We want hot (summer)
The po-lice hate November
We want hot (summer)
Got 6 mo' months of cold winter
We want hot (summer)
Call 9-1-1 you know who we are
We want hot (summer)
And we'll get there real quick
Break it down

Cars go weeehhweeehh (whuoo)
Cars go weeehhweeehh (whuoo)
Cars go weeehhweeehh (whuoo)
'Cause RPS gonna help you out
'Cause RPS gonna help you out
'Cause RPS gonna help you out
Saturday night and we on the town
Don't believe us just watch (come on)

Great job Kindersley RCMP and Edmonton Police Service on your takes!

December 16, 2015

To: Members,
Board of Police Commissioners

Re: Consideration of Meeting Dates and Times for 2016

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the January 20, 2016 meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners, previously approved on December 17, 2014, be rescheduled to Wednesday, January 27, 2016 at 9:00 a.m. to allow for the availability of the December 2015 crime statistics.
2. That the 2016 meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners be held at 9:00 a.m. on the following dates:

| | |
|-------------|--------------|
| February 24 | July 27 |
| March 30 | August 31 |
| April 27 | September 28 |
| May 25 | November 30 |
| June 29 | December 21 |
3. That the first meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners in 2017 be held on Wednesday, January 25, at 9:00 a.m.

CONCLUSION

The Board should review the information contained within this report and confirm the proposed meeting dates for 2016.

BACKGROUND

The purpose of this report is to facilitate the establishment of 2016 regular meeting dates for the Board of Police Commissioners.

DISCUSSION

The Board of Police Commissioners should establish its regular meeting schedule for 2016, with the dates selected:

- to avoid conflict with other scheduled meetings, such as the Executive Committee
- to fit the schedules of Board members.

At the December 2014 meeting, the Board approved its meeting dates for 2015, including its first meeting for 2016, which was scheduled for January 20. It is now proposed to reschedule this meeting to Wednesday, January 27, 2016 at 9:00 a.m. so that December Crime Statistics will be available.

Due to the Civic Election on October 26, 2016, a meeting has not been scheduled for October; however, should the need for a meeting arise, a special meeting will be scheduled, when needed.

Based on the above and a review of the regular meeting dates of the Board of Police Commissioners held last year, it is proposed that regular meetings for 2016 be held on the following dates at 9:00 a.m.:

| | |
|-------------|--------------|
| February 24 | July 27 |
| March 30 | August 31 |
| April 27 | September 28 |
| May 25 | November 30 |
| June 29 | December 21 |

It is also proposed that the Board of Police Commissioners select a date for its first meeting in January 2017. It is proposed the Board hold its first meeting of 2017 on Wednesday, January 25 at 9:00 a.m.

A calendar which lists the above dates and the approved meeting dates for City Council is attached as Appendix "A".

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

None with respect to this report.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

None with respect to this report.

Other Implications

None with respect to this report.

COMMUNICATION PLAN

Once all the committees and boards have set their meeting dates for 2016, a calendar will be circulated which includes the meeting dates of City Council and all committees. This calendar will be provided to the local media and any other interested parties who request the information.

DELEGATED AUTHORITY

The Board of Police Commissioners has the authority to establish a meeting schedule.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Elaine Gohlke".

Elaine Gohlke, Secretary
Board of Police Commissioners
