Re: Mid-Year Crime Statistics Comparison 2007-2016

RECOMMENDATION

That this report be received and filed.

CONCLUSION

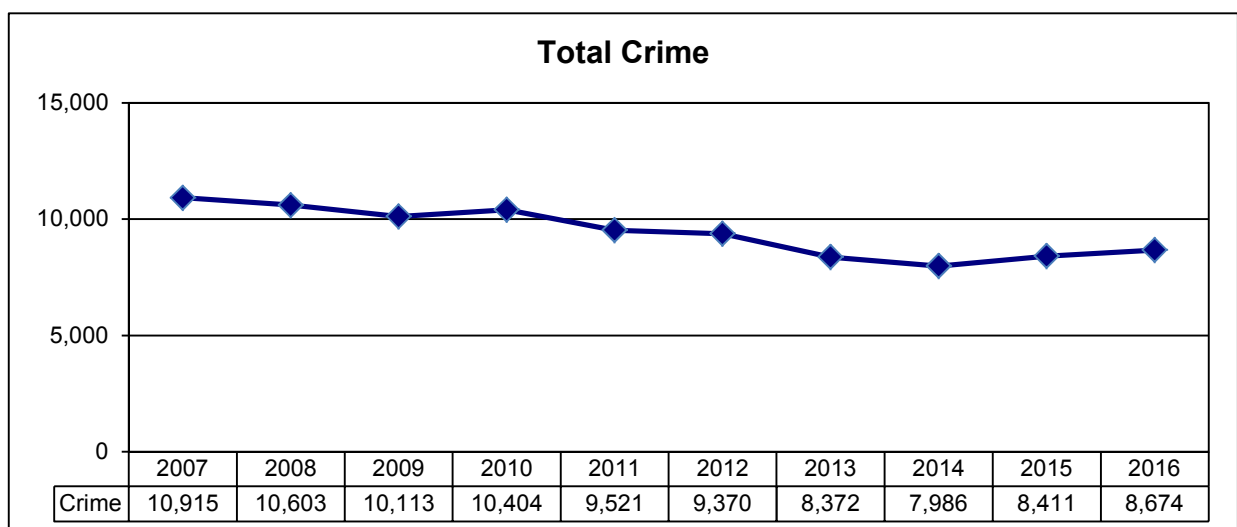

Regina's total crime was higher in the first half of 2016 than it has been since 2012, driven primarily by increases in property crimes. However, the counts in almost all crime categories have been substantially lower in 2016 than during the same period of time in 2007.

BACKGROUND

Twice each year, once at mid-year and once at year-end, the Regina Police Service provides an analysis of police-reported crime¹ in Regina over the previous ten-year period. This report compares data compiled from January 1 to June 30 for the period of 2007 through 2016. The Regina Police Service gathers data in the same manner each year, allowing for reliable analyses of crime within the city over time.

DISCUSSION

There were 3.1% more reported Total Crimes² at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 but 20.5% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

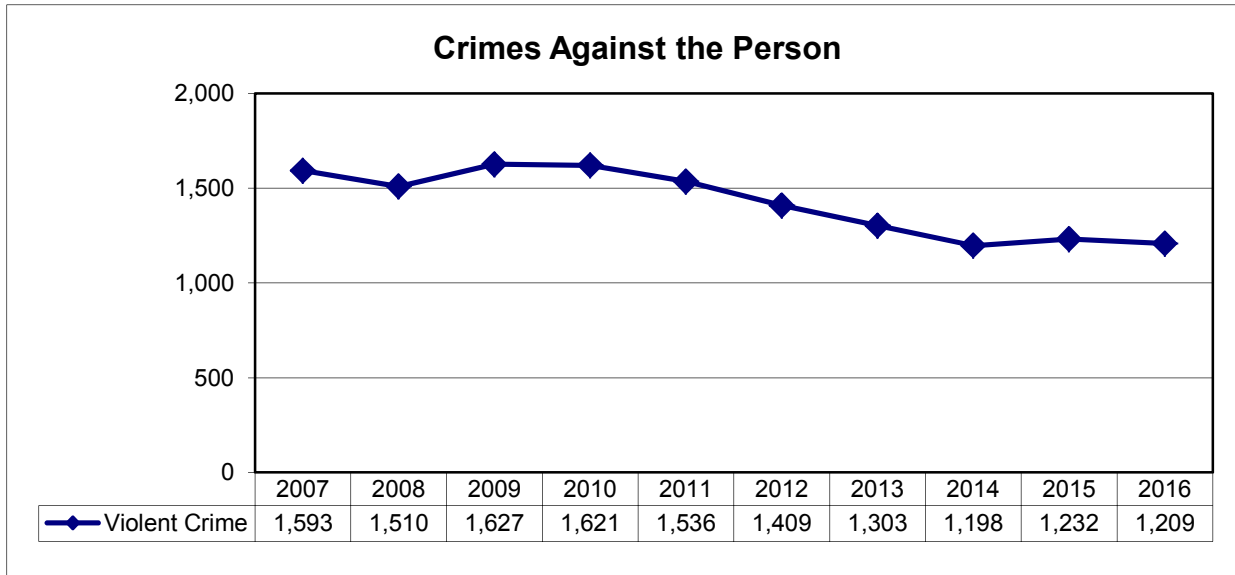

¹ Absolute crime counts, rather than crime rates or crime severity, are the basis of this analysis. These statistics are not intended for comparison with other jurisdictions that may use different methodologies or have different reporting criteria.

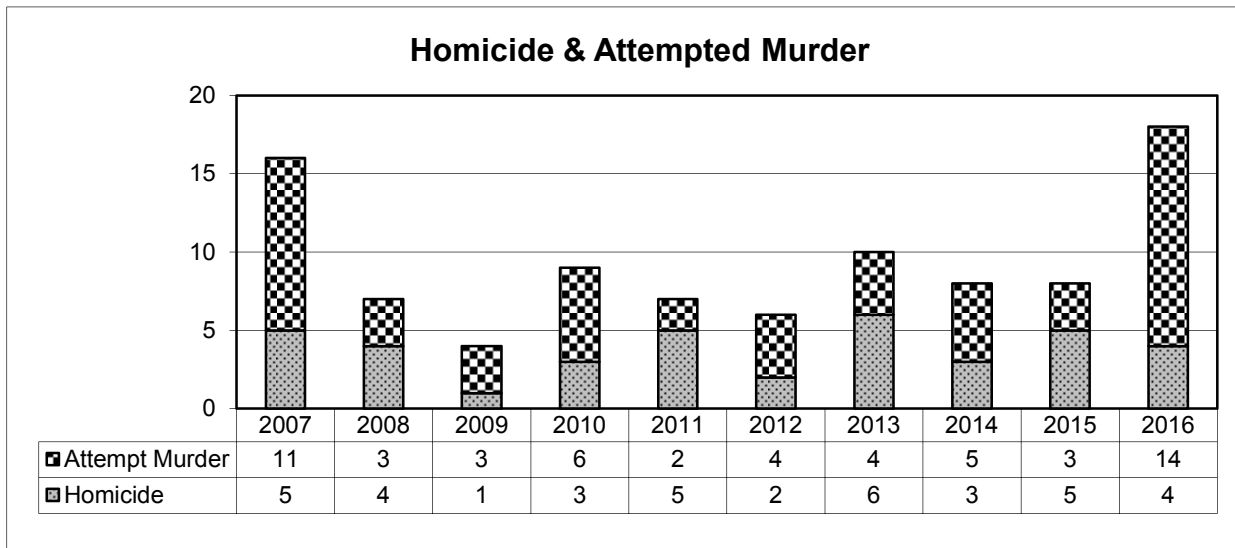

² Included in Total Crime are Crimes Against the Person, Crimes Against Property, and Other Criminal Code violations. Traffic and drug violations are not included.

Crimes Against the Person

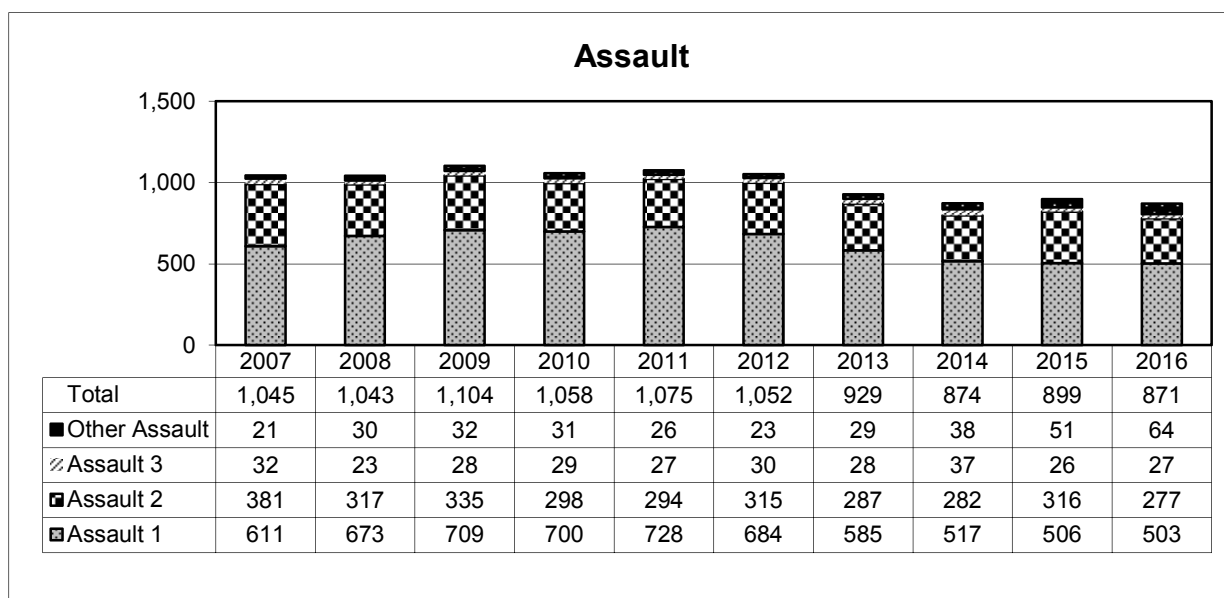

There were 1.9% fewer reported Crimes Against the Person at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 24.1% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

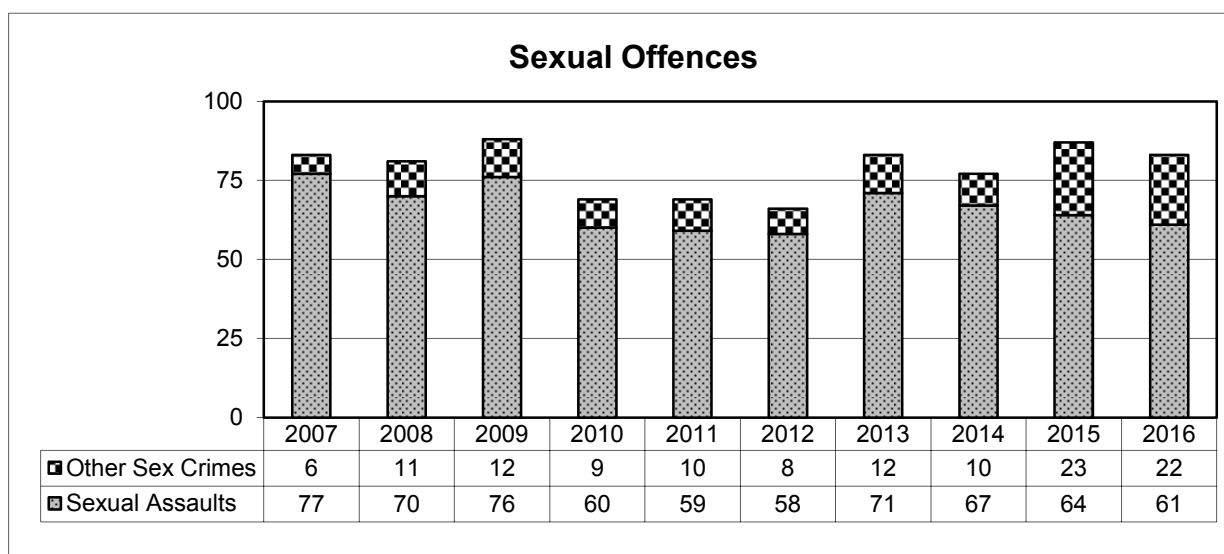

The 4 Homicides at mid-year 2016 were comparable to the mean average for the ten-year period ($\bar{x} = 3.8$). However, the 14 Attempted Murders were much higher than the ten-year mean average ($\bar{x} = 5.5$).

There were 3.1% fewer total Assaults reported at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 16.7% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

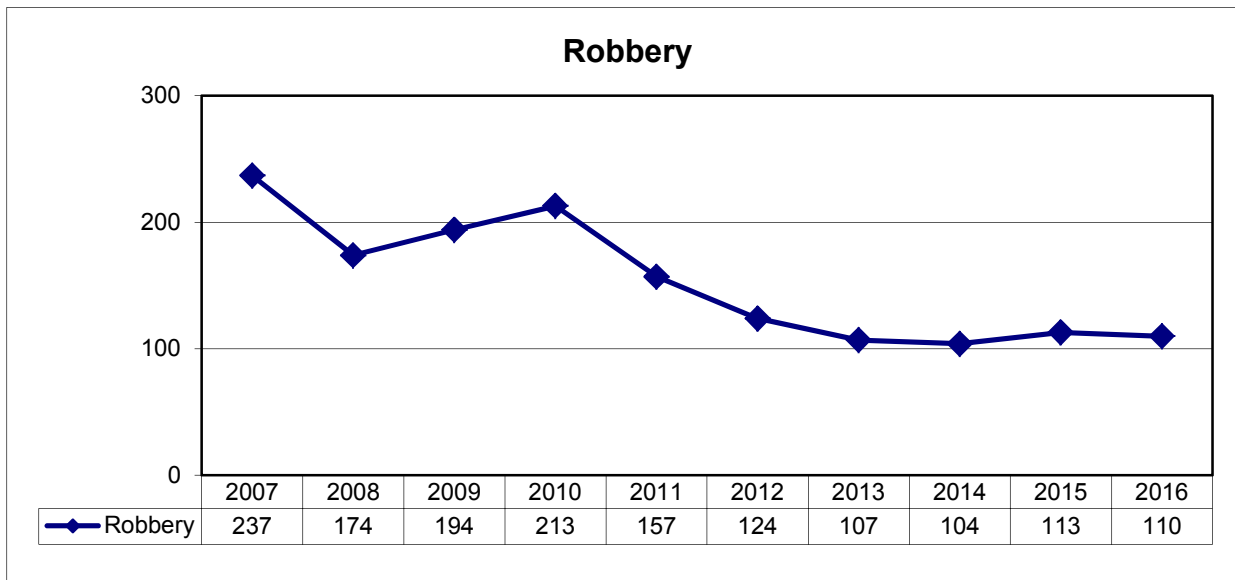

The 61 Sexual Assaults reported at mid-year 2016 were lower than the ten-year mean average ($\bar{x} = 66.3$) while the 22 reported Other Sex Crimes³ were higher than the ten-year average ($\bar{x} = 12.3$).

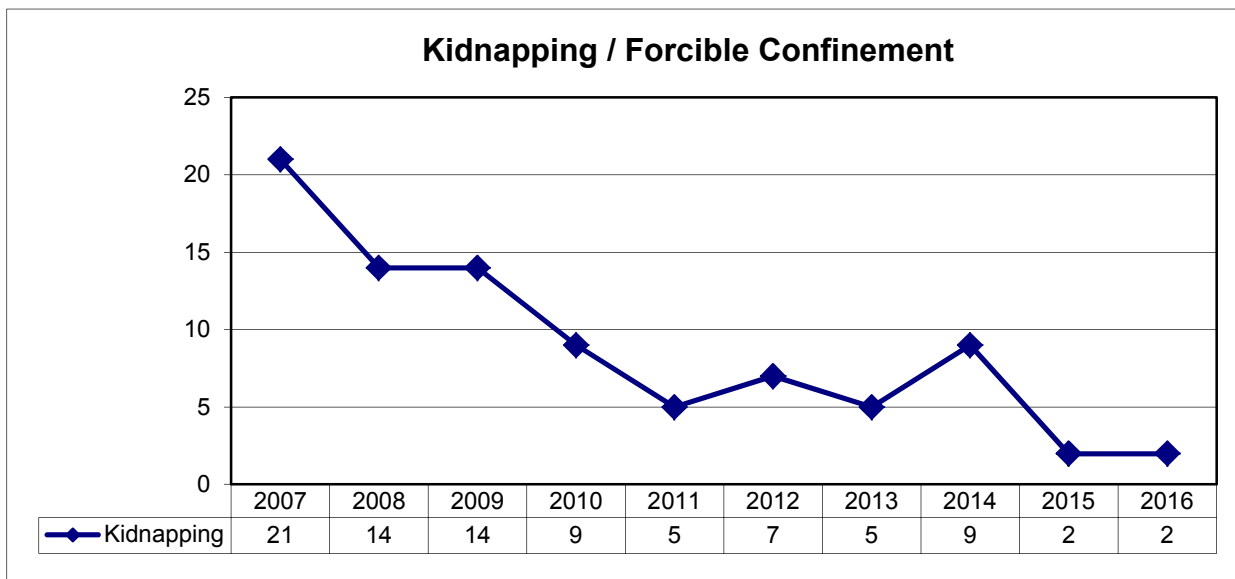

³ The crime category Other Sexual Crime includes (though this is not an exhaustive list): Sexual Interference, Invitation to Sexual Touching, Luring a Child via a Computer, and Voyeurism.

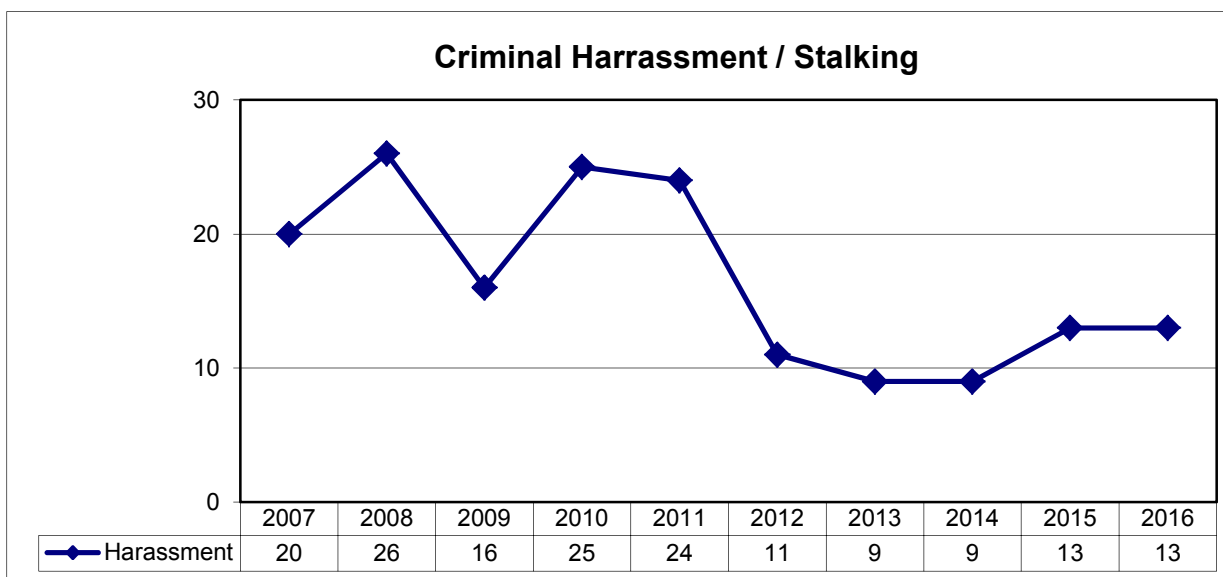

There were 2.7% fewer Robberies reported at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 53.6% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

The 2 reported occurrences of Kidnapping / Forcible Confinement at mid-year 2016 was lower than the ten-year mean average ($\bar{x} = 8.8$).

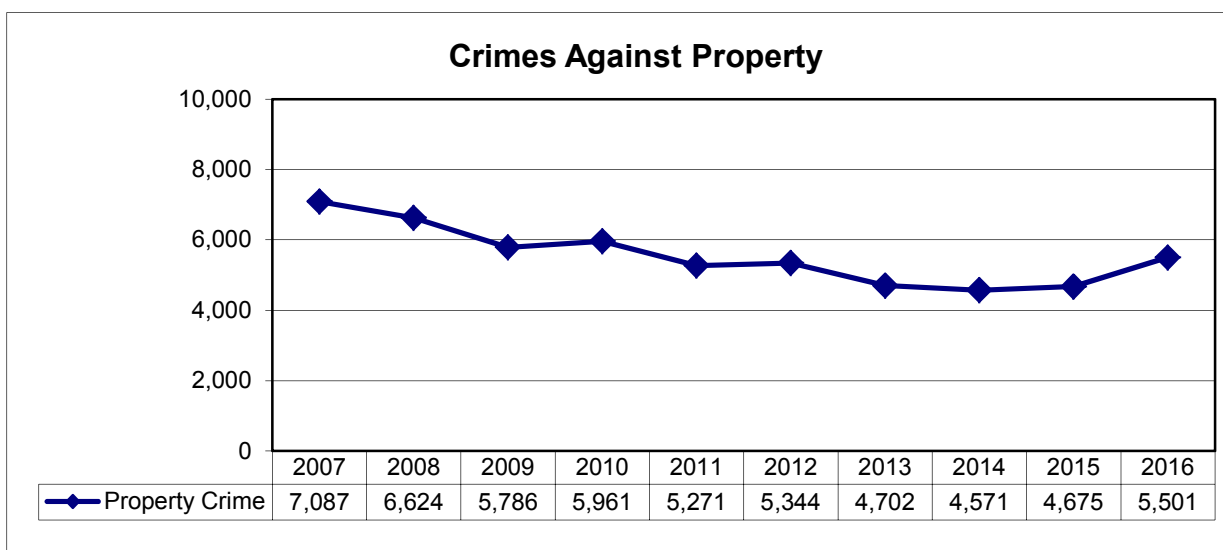

The 13 reported Criminal Harassment / Stalking occurrences at mid-year 2016 was lower than the ten-year mean average ($\bar{x} = 16.6$).

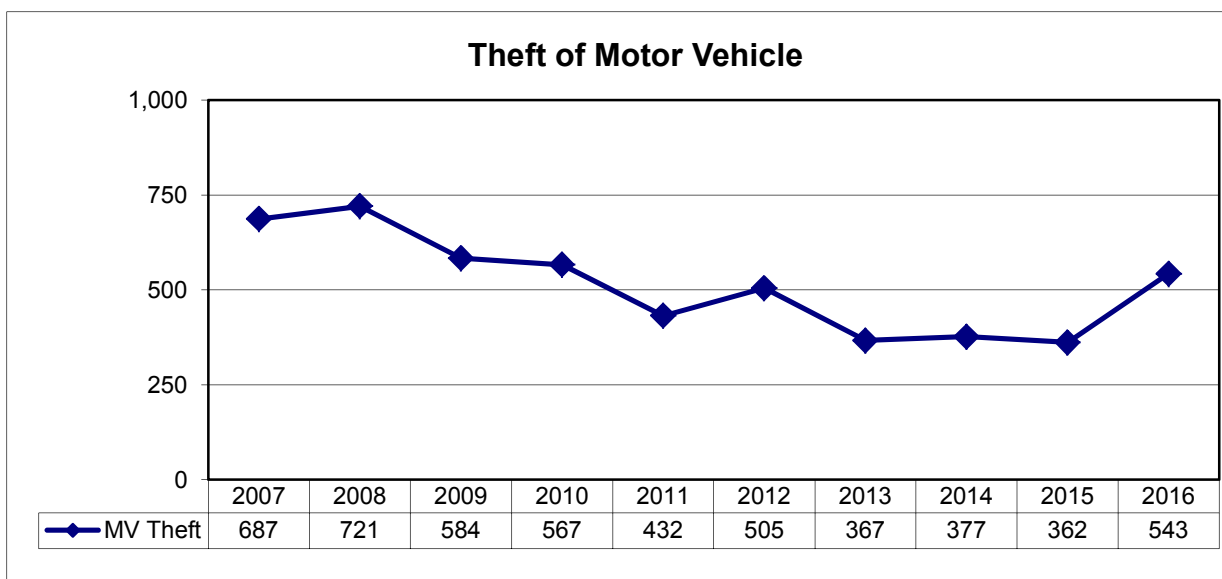

Crimes Against Property

⁴ The category Theft includes: theft, shoplifting, and theft from motor vehicle. The category does not include theft of motor vehicle.

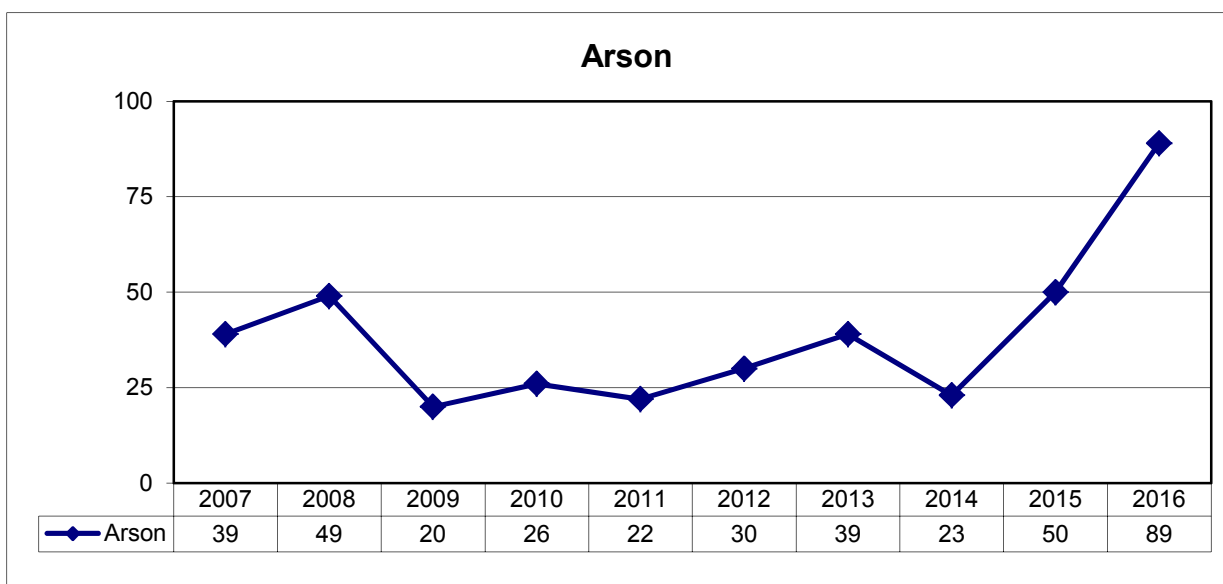

There were 9.5% more reported Break and Enters at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 but 54.1% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

There were 7.6% more reported Mischief / Willful Damage occurrences at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 but 29.2% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

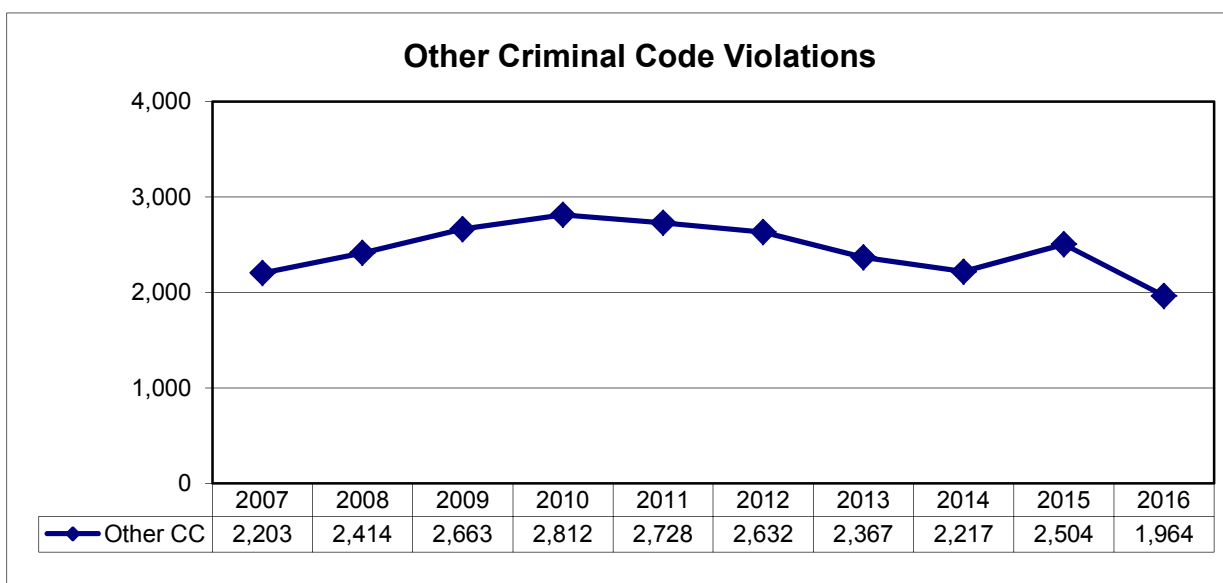

The 89 reported Arson incidents at mid-year 2016 was over twice as high as the ten-year mean average ($\bar{x} = 38.7$).

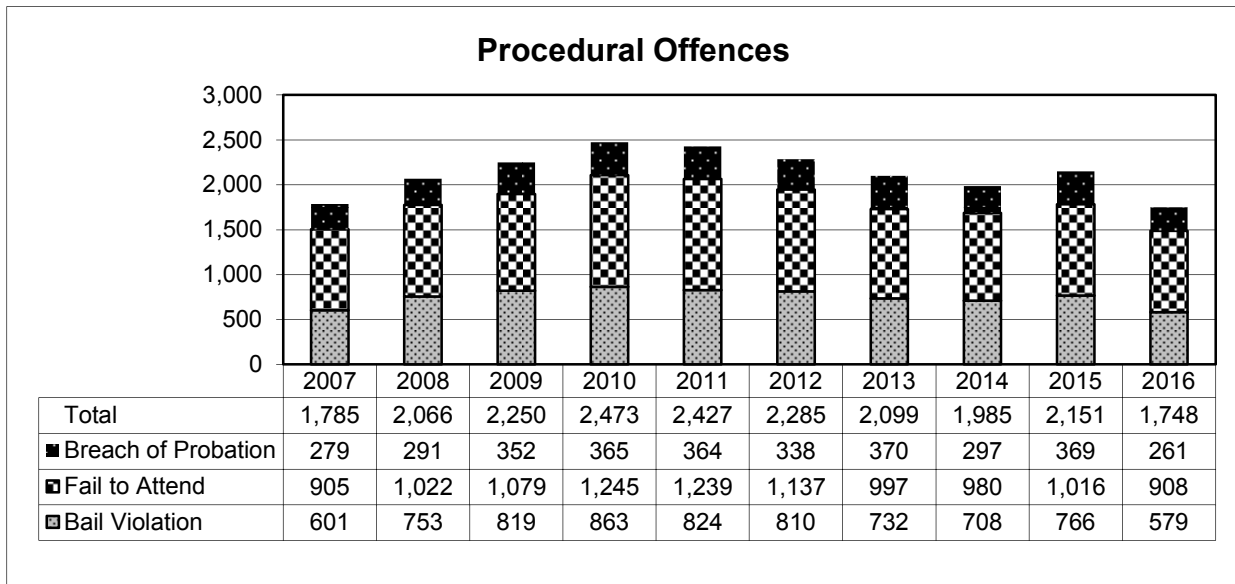

Other Criminal Code Violations

There were 21.6% fewer Other Criminal Code violations⁵ at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 10.8% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

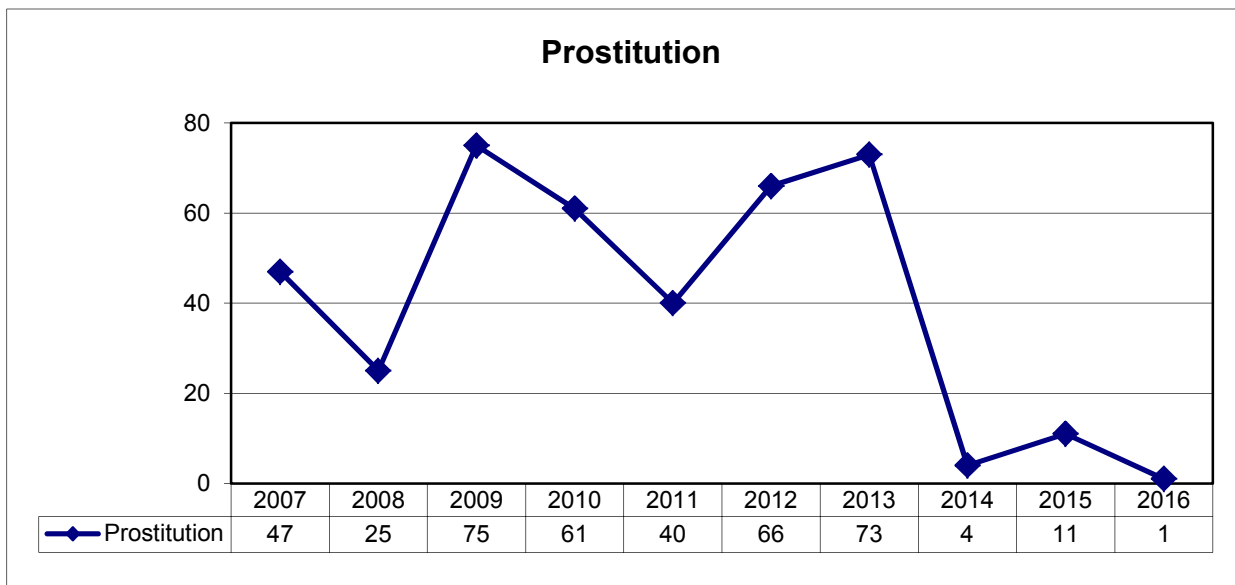

⁵ The crime category Other Criminal Code Violations includes: procedural violations, offensive weapons violations, prostitution, counterfeiting currency, and gaming and betting.

About 9 in 10 Other Criminal Code violations are Procedural Offences. There were 18.7% fewer Procedural Offences at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 2.1% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

⁶ Total Traffic Violations includes those offences that fall under the Criminal Code of Canada and the Provincial Highway Traffic Act.

There were 5.0% more traffic tickets issued⁷ at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 28.2% more than at mid-year 2007.

Calls for Service

There were 2.2% fewer Calls for Service at mid-year 2016 than at mid-year 2015 and 0.3% fewer than at mid-year 2007.

There were 18.4% fewer Alarm calls than at mid-year 2015 and 47.8% fewer than in 2007. Legislation regarding responsible alarm use was brought into force after a peak in 2005⁸.

⁸ There were 5,124 Alarm calls at mid-year 2005, which is over twice as many as were received in the first half of 2016.

Hello!

Sorry I meant to email you last week but then I got busy, so sorry about that.

It went great! My officers were amazing, they answered any questions and I had and were great at telling me what they were doing and what was going on. I was out in the car from about 8 to 11:30, just due to scheduling and busyness and my own having to work the next day. I feel that I got a full experience though, I saw a variety of calls and I didn't even find the back seat bench all that uncomfy, it had good structure to it. Overall the ride-along gave me a whole new perspective and a lot of respect for what police officers, paramedics, and nurses all go through on a daily basis.

Thank you and the police department for giving me a chance to go on a ride-along and experience this. I really appreciate it.

Officers were at the Hearts in the Park event today in Victoria Park from 11am - 1pm.

Thank you to all those who attended and wrote on a heart. The significance of the hearts was for people to write the relationship they had with someone who was in a domestic violence situation. Friends, family, and victims were there today to support victims of domestic violence.

Great photo sent to us yesterday from a Regina resident. The post read:
"Figured I would add something that made me smile today... I was walking to meet a friend for lunch and saw this officer escorting this older gentleman across the street. Took him two lights to make it... But made it safely thanks to wonderful people like this officer!!"

It is the last few days of class for students, but drivers are reminded that Regina school zones are 365 days a year, not just during the school year. Children love to play at the parks on weekends, evenings and during the weekdays in the summer, so please remember to slow to 40km/h and keep a cautious eye out for little ones. #yqr #yqrtraffic #TrafficTipTuesday

A number of officers were in RAMP (Regina Alternative Measures Program) training this week. <http://www.rampinc.ca>

RAMP was established as a restorative justice process, delivered by Aboriginal people, for both Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people who come into conflict with the law. RAMP brings people and resources together in an effort to repair the harm that has been done with the commission of an offense. This process is a viable alternative to the formal court process.

"Operation Outnumber" for Canada Day

Did you know one of the best deterrents to criminal activity is the presence of a large, fun-loving, law-abiding crowd? (Does anyone remember Grey Cup?) The Regina Police Service is encouraging Regina residents to come to Wascana Park to celebrate Canada's 149th birthday.

It's true: organizers of major events have long known that the presence of law-abiding, legitimate users of a public space, decreases the likelihood of social disorder... See More

The Regina Police Service is encouraging Regina residents to be a little more attentive than usual when it comes to safeguarding their vehicles. In recent weeks, police have seen an increase in the thefts of Honda and Acura vehicles.
