Telephone call received August 2, 2016

Mr. Elmer Redekopp from Saskatoon called today to pass on to us his experience dealing with one of our police officers. On Saturday he was involved in an accident where he hit a pedestrian with his vehicle. Nine of our officers attended the scene, however, Constable Claudia Jones #847 took him aside to get his statement and Mr. Redekopp said she was the most wonderful person to him. She didn't hurry him through his statement. He said Cst. Jones is a wonderful person, very nice and kind and an incredible human being.

Cst. Jones,
I thank you,
Claudia for saving
Mr. Redekopp in what must have been a very stressful situation

This message is to be forwarded on CST. B.Fink, as our encounter with him earlier this morning off of Rochdale Blvd. in North Regina was extremely pleasant. He successfully executed his duties by administrating a speeding ticket, while showing respect and courtesy to myself. He is a great representative of the police force and is great example of an officer that takes pride in helping his community. It gives me peace of mind to see an officer in a position of power that is committed to upholding a high standard of service.

RE: Earl and Countess of Wessex - June 22-24, 2016 and Prime Minister's Visit to Regina Fort Qu'Appelle - April 26, 2016

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the RCMP, we would like to thank your Police Service for its assistance with the Royal Visit and with the Prime Minister visit. It was obvious that numerous resources that were used from your Police Service to do traffic control and assist with the security at sites.

We would like to identify the assistance of Sgt Alana Stach for both the Prime Minister and Royal Visit. We would like to also identify the assistance of S/Sgt Dave Virgin during the Royal Visit. Both of these members met with our team in advance of the visit to assist in preparations for the Earl and Countess's visit in Regina. Sgt Stach also attended advances prior to the Prime Ministers Visit, and assisted during the visit in Fort Qu'Appelle. Their assistance was crucial in the planning of the motorcade routes.

Thanks again for your assistance and we look forward to working with you and your staff in the near future.

Yours truly,

Thank-you to the personal who attended our house on the morning of June 25, 2016. My husband had passed in his sleep.

You both were not only professional but showed a thoughtfulness and kindness beyond any duty to myself,
my children and our dog Blackie.
The compassion and caring you showed made a very difficult time a little better for us. You both gave me the strength and calmness I needed for my

Yours is often a thankless

I appreciated everything you did.
Death is never easy but the kindness and caring felt so genuine; it helped in ways
you'll never know.

Thank-you

Thanks
Dean*

Dear Stephanie:

On behalf of the Policy Centre for Victim Issues at the Department of Justice Canada, please accept our sincere thanks for your contribution to this year's Victims and Survivors of Crime Week, and for your assistance with the planning process leading up to the event.

Your role on the 2016 Victims and Survivors of Crime Week Organizing Committee was a tremendous contribution to the success of the 11th annual Week. Your dedication to the planning process, your assistance in setting up the day of the Symposium, and your role as a moderator all helped to ensure the Symposium was a success.

Victims and Survivors of Crime Week was successful in raising awareness about victim and survivor issues in Canada. This year, more over 185 communities hosted events and ran public awareness campaigns which encouraged Canadians to use the power of their voices to meet the needs of victims, survivors and their families. The Federal Symposium, and Week in general, encouraged an important discussion and exchange of ideas on the needs of victims and survivors of crime and current service delivery. Your contribution to those discussions has helped to ensure victims and survivors' voices are heard.

Please accept our sincere thanks for your contribution to Victims and Survivors of Crime Week 2016 and your many years of dedication to the Organizing Committee.

Sincerely,

July 18, 2016

Dear Chief Hagen,

I'm writing to commend the Regina Police Service in general, and the actions of two officers in particular.

On Saturday July 16th, I was repairing a fence at a friend's home on the

About 9pm, I was retrieving an item from the driver's side of my vehicle which was parked on Cameron Street. I was alarmed to hear a high speed vehicle approaching; the engine was racing and the vehicle was still accelerating. I was prepared to leap behind my vehicle if needed. A black car raced by me; my best guess of his speed was about 80 km/hr. The car returned just a couple minutes later and made another high speed pass down the 1900 block Cameron.

I was unable to get a plate number or vehicle make due to the speed at which the vehicle flew past me.

Over the next 30 minutes, this vehicle made at least 6 high speed passes down the same block. I noticed it parked in a driveway at _____, so I walked down and took a picture. I now had the plate number, vehicle make and model, as well as the location of the vehicle, so I called RPS with this information.

I was very impressed with how RPS handled this complaint; from the communications person I spoke to on the phone, to the officers who came to the scene. I'm sure that patrol officers have a never ending list of calls they could attend to on a warm Saturday evening in July, but a patrol vehicle arrived soon after my call.

Officer Anita Robinson called my cell phone and asked me to walk back to the scene and provide a statement. As I approached, she was dealing with several people in the backyard at this house in a firm manner; I do believe alcohol was a factor at this backyard party. Officer Robinson quickly changed her demeanor and dealt with me in a pleasant and polite manner. While I wrote out my statement in the patrol vehicle, Officer Robinson's partner Jason checked with other residents on the street; some of whom had also seen or heard the speeding vehicle.

The decision was made to seize the vehicle, a decision which did not sit well with the people at the backyard party.

I am thankful the officers chose to remove this dangerous vehicle from the streets of Regina. Hopefully the owner of the vehicle will learn a lesson from this incident; a lesson where the cost can be measured with dollars, and not with injuries or worse.

In this age of social media, some people in society are quick to condemn the actions of police officers after seeing a short video clip, but before they know the whole story. Credit where credit is due; Officer Robinson and her partner Jason took my concerns seriously, and did their jobs in a professional manner.

Thanks again to you and your department for keeping Regina a safe and secure city to live in.

*Sgt Ward
Sgt Froh,
Thanks for your presentation
as they were very well received!
You are both great ambassadors
for the RPS. Dean Rae*

Dear Chief Rae:

I work in the communications branch at the Ministries of Advanced Education and Labour Relations and Workplace Safety. Over the past year, we've been involved in several outreach events with members of your staff. It's been a first-rate experience each time.

In June, Advanced Education held its annual staff meeting. Our theme was One Team. Sgt. Casey Ward accepted our invitation to represent the Regina Police Service SWAT team on a panel that included a 911 dispatcher and an executive chef. Each of our panelists offered their individual perspective on how teamwork is crucial to their success.

Sgt. Ward was engaged and interesting. He made us laugh. At other times, his comments were moving. His enthusiasm made it clear he loves being a police officer. He's a credit to the Regina Police Service. You're fortunate to have him.

It's not the first time I've been impressed by a member of your staff. In January we had the pleasure of hosting Sgt. Tia Froh and her canine partner Merlot. She twice presented at an event where we bring in speakers to talk to our employees over the lunch hour. She was gracious and generous. She is also a great ambassador for Regina's police force.

I hope our Ministry can continue to work with the Regina Police Service. If there's ever any way I can repay the favour, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Barbara Doulias Me too 😞 I worked for RPS for a short while after I moved to regina and that's where I first learned of her disappearance. I know it haunts a lot of the staff at RPS and I cannot even imagine what the family goes through every day. I pray for them and for Tamra. I hope one day there is some closure and that these horrific events stop happening. 😞

Our flags are at half mast today to express our sympathy for the families of the deceased officers in Dallas, Texas, the injured victims and their colleagues.

Officer Jenny says: Please remember to practice safe training and catch responsibly. Don't play in the streets, don't catch and drive, and watch where you're walking. If you're going to play in the vehicle, have a designated driver. (A Charizard is not worth a $280 ticket)

Technically #PokemonGo isn't released in Canada yet, but folks seem to have copies anyways. Play safe!

Meagan Cameron Well this serves as an excellent reminder, having moved from BC 6 years ago it was an incredible shock to discover that the police here in Regina often only use their lights as an indicator for drivers to move right. I would suggest that they consistently use lights and sirens to ensure that drivers have the best indication that there is an emergency vehicle approaching and to move right.

I just wanted to personally message you guys to thank you so much for all of the kind and compassionate things you do! While I was driving, I noticed that 2 of your police cars blocked off traffic just so one of your officers could safely assist a physically challenged man in a wheelchair across the intersection of arcola ave and park street. Watching this made my heart melt and it put a huge smile on my face! Thank you all so much, you're amazing! 😊 I got my friend to take a picture.

Happy Christmas in July!

Did you know: January 2016 was the second year in a row that Regina Police Service officer Cst. Mills organized a toy drive from members of the RPS, to donate gently used (or new) toys for the North Central Family Centre. This year they split the donation between the North Central Family Centre and the North Central Community Association. We love helping out with community partners and the officers enjoyed seeing the smiles on kids (and adults!) faces when they dropped off the toys!

The following statement is from Acting Chief @CoreyZaharuk of @reginapolice on #DallasPoliceShooting. #yqr #sask

Our flags are at half-mast today to express our sympathy for the families of the deceased officers in Dallas, Texas, the injured victims and their colleagues.

This is a very tragic event...as is any violence that takes lives and causes injuries. These acts change people's lives forever. We are shocked and saddened by this event, and extend our deepest sympathy to all involved.

In terms of what it may mean to our police service...we don't know enough about the events in Dallas to try and analyze from a distance and offer comment. We will stay connected to this event as observers, and our hearts go out to our neighbours to the south. We will seek to learn in the coming days what the local or national implications for policing might be.

We are certain it does have an emotional impact on our people who work daily in law enforcement, and their families. We will pay attention to ensure they remain healthy and well.

We obviously watch and follow events like this very closely as we are in the business of being vigilant to any expression of violence or acts of violence in our community, whatever the motivation may be.
