Re: Tamra Keepness Investigation

RECOMMENDATION

That the Board of Police Commissioners continue to offer a $50,000 reward, until December 31, 2017, for information that leads to determining the whereabouts of Tamra Keepness.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service believes continuing to offer a reward for information about the whereabouts of Tamra Keepness may elicit needed evidence.

BACKGROUND

Tamra Jewel Keepness was last seen in her home in the 1800 block of Ottawa Street in the evening hours of Monday, July 5, 2004. She was noted missing by family members during the morning hours of Tuesday, July 6, 2004. Since receiving the report of her disappearance at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday, July 6, 2004, the Regina Police Service has conducted a comprehensive search and investigation.

At a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners on July 13, 2004, the Board authorized a $25,000 reward for information leading to the discovery of the location of Tamra Keepness. The closing date for the reward was originally December 31, 2004. In July 2014 the Board of Police Commissioners increased the reward to $50,000.

The Board has previously approved the continuance of the reward in each of the subsequent years of 2005 to 2016.

DISCUSSION

Reinstatement of the Reward

The Regina Police Service continues its investigation into the disappearance of Tamra Keepness. However, after following through on the information received, the file has not been solved and Tamra has not been located. The missing person file of Tamra Keepness is assigned to the Cold Case Unit, where the investigation into the disappearance of Tamra Keepness continues. New information pertaining to this incident could be pivotal in bringing the investigation to a conclusion. In order to encourage people with direct knowledge to come forward, it is recommended the Board of Police Commissioners authorize the continuance of the $50,000 reward to December 31, 2017. The governance of the reward will continue to be held with the Board. The criteria will continue as set out in 2004, with the noted change in expiry date:

The reward of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($50,000) is to be awarded to the person, or persons, who in the sole opinion of the Board of Police Commissioners for the City of Regina, have submitted information to the Regina Police Service, leading directly to the discovery of the whereabouts of Tamra Jewel Keepness.

Person(s) criminally culpable for the disappearance of Tamra Jewel Keepness, member(s) of the family of Tamra Jewel Keepness, and employees of law enforcement or correctional agencies are not eligible to lay claim to the reward or any portion thereof.

In the event that more than one person has submitted information that would entitle them to a share thereof, the reward will be apportioned as deemed just by the Board of Police Commissioners for the City of Regina.

This reward expires December 31, 2017.

The Regina Police Service will review the need to continue the reward beyond 2017 and make recommendations to the Board in December 2017.

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

The Regina Police Service has not specifically set aside $50,000 in its 2017 budget to cover the expense of a claimed reward. If the reward is claimed, the Regina Police Service will make every effort to manage the expenditure within its 2017 budget.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

The reward may elicit information critical to identifying those responsible for the disappearance or the locating of Tamra Keepness.

Other Implications

Reward Guidelines:

- If you have information regarding this investigation contact the Regina Police Service, Cold Case Unit.
- In order to qualify for the reward, the RPS requires persons to provide their name and address and a complete statement of their knowledge of the case to investigators. They may be required to testify. No confidentiality can be offered.
- In the event the information provided leads to the location of Tamra Keepness, you may choose to file a claim for the reward. If you do so, you must file a claim by letter addressed to the Chief of Police, 1717 Osler Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, S4P 3W3. You may choose to mail it via regular mail or courier. Please ensure you keep a dated copy of your claim letter and any receipts.
- The Regina Police Service Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police at their sole discretion will determine the portion of the reward to be paid to any claimant(s). Only persons who have filed a claim to the reward will be considered.
- No member of a federal, provincial or municipal police agency including full or part-time employees or volunteers, corrections agency employees, full-time or volunteers or their family members are entitled to file a claim for a reward. Persons engaged in the judicial system either as employees or contractors are excluded from claiming a reward. This also includes lawyers, employees and family members of firms that were the victim of a crime.
- Persons who provided statements to police in this investigation before a reward was offered are not eligible to claim a reward.

COMMUNICATIONS

The offer of a $50,000 reward will remain on the Regina Police Service website.

Re: Triple Homicide Investigation

RECOMMENDATION

That the Board of Police Commissioners continue to offer a reward of $50,000.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw and Seven June Htoo, until December 31, 2017.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended the Board of Police Commissioners continue to offer a reward of $50,000.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw and Seven June Htoo, until December 31, 2017.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service is investigating a triple homicide which occurred August 2010. The investigation will continue until all investigative avenues have been exhausted.

BACKGROUND

On August 6, 2010 the bodies of Gray Nay Htoo (31yrs), his wife, Maw Maw (28yrs) and their son, Seven June Htoo (3yrs) were located in their residence at 323 Oakview Drive. The victims were Karen refugees from a Thailand refugee camp who had lived in Regina for approximately two years. Since the beginning of the investigation one member from the RCMP was assigned. The RCMP member is of Karen descent and has lived and worked within the Regina Karen community.

The investigative team has worked in conjunction with various sections of the RCMP, the FBI and other police services utilizing multiple police investigative techniques to gather substantial evidence.

In July 2015, the file and investigation was assigned to the Regina Police Service Cold Case Coordinator. The Cold Case Coordinator's responsibility is to continue the investigation, follow-up on any outstanding tasks and follow-up on any new information which comes to light.

DISCUSSION

The Regina Police Service continues to hold the murders of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw Htoo and Seven June Htoo as a priority. The investigation has been ongoing since August 6, 2010. The investigators believe the continuation of the reward may stimulate more information to come forward.

The Regina Police Service will review the need to continue the reward beyond 2017 and make recommendations to the Board in December 2017.

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

The Regina Police Service has not specifically set aside $50,000 in the 2017 budget to cover the expense of a claimed reward. If a reward is claimed, the Regina Police Service will make every effort to manage the expenditure within the 2017 budget.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

The reward may elicit information to identify those responsible for the deaths of Gray Nay Htoo, Maw Maw and Seven June Htoo.

Other Implications

Reward Guidelines:

- If you have information regarding this investigation contact the Regina Police Service, Major Crimes Unit.
- In order to qualify for the reward, the RPS requires persons to provide their name and address and a complete statement of their knowledge of the case to investigators. They may be required to testify. No confidentiality can be offered.
- In the event of an arrest, you may choose to file a claim for the reward. If you do so, you must file a claim by letter addressed to the Chief of Police, 1717 Osler Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, S4P 3W3. You may choose to mail it via regular mail or courier. Please ensure you keep a dated copy of your claim letter and any receipts.
- Upon completion of the case in court where a conviction occurs, the Regina Police Service Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police at their sole discretion will determine the portion of the reward to be paid to any claimant(s). Only persons who have filed a claim to the reward will be considered.

- No member of a federal, provincial or municipal police agency including full or part-time employees or volunteers, corrections agency employees, full-time or volunteers or their family members are entitled to file a claim for a reward. Persons engaged in the judicial system either as employees or contractors are excluded from claiming a reward. This also includes lawyers, employees and family members of firms that were the victim of a crime.
- No reward will be paid until the case is concluded in the courts and a conviction occurs for the offense which the reward was offered. Any appeals must be concluded with a conviction.
- Persons who provided statements to police in this investigation before a reward was offered are not eligible to claim a reward.

COMMUNICATIONS

The continued $50,000 reward will be communicated on the Regina Police Service website and through other media sources.

Re: Monthly Crime Statistics – November 2016

RECOMMENDATION

That this report be received and filed.

RECOMMENDATION

Receive and file.

CONCLUSION

The crime statistics for the month of November 2016 reflect an increase in Crimes Against the Person of 0.3% compared to November 2015, while Crimes Against Property show a 13.0% increase compared to November 2015. Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property show a combined year-to-date increase of 10.6%.

BACKGROUND

Each month, reports providing statistics for the City of Regina are presented to the Board for their review and information. This report will provide statistics for the month of November 2016. The Communications Centre statistics are included showing the total calls for service.

DISCUSSION

Crimes Against Property reflect an increase of 1,332 reported incidents over 2015, for an overall year-to-date increase of 13.0%. We have seen an increase of 642 reported incidents of Theft Under $5000 for a 14.5% increase. There are 3 more reported incidents of Mischief / Wilful Damage for a 0.1% increase.

Thefts of Auto rates have increased by 132 incidents for an overall increase of 14.4% in our year-to-date statistics. The Regina Police Service in conjunction with its partners in the Stolen Auto Strategy continues to pay constant attention to this issue.

Crimes Against the Person reflect a year-to-date increase of 8 incidents over November 2015 for a 0.3% increase. There were 21 reported Robberies in November for a year-to-date increase of 40 incidents or an increase of 18.1%.

Overall the Regina Police Service has received 1,340 more reported incidents of Crimes Against the Person and Crimes Against Property combined in 2016 over 2015 for a 10.6% increase.

There were a total of 7,194 dispatched Calls for Service in November for a year-to-date increase of 2.7% and Alarm Calls for Service show a year-to-date decrease of [-17.4%].

RE: Chaplain Dong Joo Kim
Basic Credential

Chief Bray:

The International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) has been at the forefront in training and credentialing law enforcement chaplains for over forty years.

This credential attests to your chaplain's completion of 35 hours of professional studies, which include ICPC's Basic Core Courses.

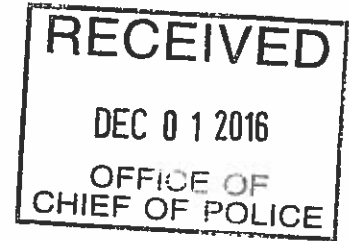

This recognition reflects on your chaplain's commitment to continuing education, as well as your agency and its chaplaincy program.

Please visit our website: www.icpc4cops.org for more information on ICPC, credentialing, training opportunities, or to view our quarterly publication The Journal.

Cordially,

John Transue
Academic Registrar

cc: Chaplain

I have a comment: In late September I had to go to the Regina Police station front desk regarding some property that was stolen from me. The details involve a long story that had gone on for a year and a half and I didn't expect a lot of sympathy from the police due to past experiences. To my surprise, I dealt with a very nice good looking young officer at the front desk by the name of Mandy. She had two stripes on her uniform so was more than a regular constable. She was awesome and very helpful and one of the nicest people I've ever met. I also noticed there was another young officer assisting other customers and he was also extremely nice and helpful. As it turned out, within about an hour Mandy had arranged for another young officer by the name of Derek Redekopp (I believe) to meet me and he recovered my stolen property that day. At one point, a Sergeant dropped in to assist Derek. He was an older veteran and he was also extremely nice and polite to me and very helpful. I don't know what has happened at the Regina Police Service but they have sure changed compared to many years ago. They now are the most caring and helpful police force I've ever dealt with. So thank you very much to the Regina Police Service!!!!

Mandy, Derek & Rod,
Thank you for your professionalism in handling Mrs. Callin's complaint. Judging by her email, past interactions with police had not been perceived as positive. Your diligence and empathy have gone a long way to restore faith in our organization for this lady!
Thanks!
Evan Bray

P.S.: Rod, I did note
she categorized you
as "older". "

Tyler,
These types of notes remind us of the positive impact we can have with the public through the normal course of our duties. Thank you for

Earl Bray

Officer Greuber -

Just a note to say
"Thank You" for your caring and thoughtfulness you showed me when I had my car accident
Nov. 14th at 12th Ave & Francis St.
You are a real professional law officer.

I just wanted to write a quick note saying Thank You to the RPS for arriving so quickly when i called 911 last night after an intruder entered my back yard by climbing over the fence. It was very reassuring to know that the police were there that quick.

TEARS OF A COP

I have been where you fear to be.
I have seen what you fear to see.
I have done what you fear to do.
All these things I've done for you.
I am the one you lean upon.
The one you cast your scorn upon.
The one you bring your troubles to,
All these people I've been for you.
The one you ask to stand apart.
The one you feel should have no heart.
The one you call the officer in blue.
But I am human, just like you.
And through the years I've come to see
That I am not what you ask of me.
So take this badge and take this gun.
Will you take it?
Will anyone?
And when you watch a person die,
And hear a battered baby cry.
Then so you think that you can be
All those things you ask of me?

I wanted to post this on your wall but I can't. Thank you for all u do

It's been exactly 1 year since the Winter Driving "Rap Battle" of 2015 (started by the Kindersley RCMP), so to commemorate, I have decided to start the Sober Driving Song Score of 2016, to try and curb impaired driving.

(To the tune of Closer by The Chainsmokers)

Hey, I was doing just fine before I met you.
You were drinkin' too much and that's an issue but it's okay.
Hey, you tell your friends that they can call me,
Because tonight I am the DD, okay?

I know you had some brews,
Drove into the city in your real nice car.
And eight beers, five shots,
Now you're feeling' tipsy in the hotel bar.
And I will drive,
Yeah, I will drive.

Your car keys, hand 'em over, get in the backseat of your Rover.
And I'll get you all home safe now,
'cuz I'm the only one who's sober.
Pull the seatbelt over your shoulder,
Buckle up now and feel safer.
With your roommate and your best friends,
Guarantee that you'll get older.

We be always drivin' sober
We be always drivin' sober

It's been 1yr since the Winter Driving Rap Battle of '15. How about a "Sober Driving Song Score" of '16?? mic drop #DontDrinkAndDrive

Regina Police Service

5 mins · 🌐

It's been exactly 1 year since the Winter Driving "Rap Battle" of 2015 (started by the Kindersley RCMP), so to commemorate, I have decided to start the Sober Driving Song Score of 2016, to try and curb impaired driving.

(To the tune of Closer by The Chainsmokers)

Hey, I was doing just fine before I met you.
You were drinkin' too much and that's an issue but it's okay.
Hey, you tell your friends that they can call me,
Because tonight I am the DD, okay?

I know you had some brews,
Drove into the city in your real nice car.
And eight beers, five shots,
Now you're feeling' tipsy in the hotel bar.
And I will drive,
Yeah, I will drive.

Your car keys, hand 'em over, get in the backseat of your Rover.
And I'll get you all home safe now,
'cuz I'm the only one who's sober.
Pull the seatbelt over your shoulder,
Buckle up now and feel safer.
With your roommate and your best friends,
Guarantee that you'll get older.

We be always drivin' sober
We be always drivin' sober

Here it is, @reginapolice our Sober Driving Song Score of 2016.. Can you guess what song we used? #ArriveAlive and #DriveSober this holiday.

Kindersley RCMP

See if you can guess the song...

You Can't Drive This

Can't drive this
Can't drive this
Can't drive this (oh-oh oh oh oh-oh-oh)
Can't drive this (oh-oh oh oh oh-oh-oh)
My-my-my-my booze makes me so drunk makes me say oh my gosh
Thank you for blessing me with a mind to find my own D.D.
That's good when you know your limit
A super dope homeboy from town
I wanna get home alive
And this is why I can't drive

My friends told me I can't drive this Yeah that's how I'm livin' and I know I can't drive this
The red in my eyes says I can't drive this
The cops they be bustin' me if they know I'm drivin' this

Fresh new stipes and cuffs
You get it like that if you're going to jail
So move out of the driver's seat
And get a D.D to drive this beast
While it's rollin' hold on seat belt on Cause jail ain't nothing like home like home
Cold cement bed it's hard on the back
We all know I want to stay alive
And this is a fact uh I can't drive

Yo they told me I can't drive this
Why are your keys out there man, u can't drive this Yo sound the sirens cops behind us I can't drive this

It's the law we all know
Can't drive this (oh-oh oh oh oh-oh-oh)

Thanks for the challenge @reginapolice! #SoberDrivingSongScore2016
#PlanASafeRideHome

Now this is a story all about now
My life got flipped-turned upside down
And I'd like to take a minute
Just sit right there
I'll tell you how I went to jail because I drove while impaired.

In west Saskatchewan born and raised
At the local bar where I spend most of my days
Chillin' out maxin' relaxin' all cool
And smoking some pot behind the old high school
When a couple of guys who were up to no good
Wanted to go cruisin' around the neighborhood
It was a slow, short ride so I wasn't scared
But outta nowhere a kid ran out – I wasn't prepared.

I whistled for some help but when it came near
My 'buddies' ran off leavin' the kid and me here.
I coulda left, too, the streets were bare,
But I thought, "Nah, forget it."
I can't leave without a care.

I just had a few, this shouldn't have happened.
I do it all the time and get home fine.
Always said it won't happen to me,
That kid coulda died, she's only 3.

I begged and pleaded for my friends to stay,
But they ran home while I got hauled away.
We could have walked or called for a ride
I could have said 'no.' Why did I drive?

To: Members
Board of Police Commissioners

Re: Consideration of Meeting Dates and Times for 2017

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the 2017 meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners be held at 9:00 a.m. on the following dates:

January 25 (previously approved)	July 26
February 22	August 30
March 29	September 27
April 26	October 25
May 31	November 29
June 28	December 20

2. That the first meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners in 2018 be held on Wednesday, January 31 at 9:00 a.m.

CONCLUSION

The Board should review the information contained within this report and confirm the proposed meeting dates for 2017.

BACKGROUND

The purpose of this report is to facilitate the establishment of 2017 regular meeting dates for the Board of Police Commissioners.

DISCUSSION

The Board of Police Commissioners should establish its regular meeting schedule for 2017, with the dates selected:

- to avoid conflict with other scheduled meetings, such as the Executive Committee
- to fit the schedules of Board members.

Based on the above and a review of the regular meeting dates of the Board of Police Commissioners held last year, it is proposed that regular meetings for 2017 be held on the following dates at 9:00 a.m.:

January 25 (previously approved)	July 26
February 22	August 30
March 29	September 27
April 26	October 25
May 31	November 29
June 28	December 20

It is also proposed that the Board of Police Commissioners select a date for its first meeting in January 2018. It is proposed the Board hold its first meeting of 2018 on Wednesday, January 31 at 9:00 a.m.

A calendar which lists the above dates and the approved meeting dates for City Council is attached as Appendix "A".

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

None with respect to this report.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

None with respect to this report.

Other Implications

None with respect to this report.

COMMUNICATION PLAN

Once all the committees and boards have set their meeting dates for 2017, a calendar will be circulated which includes the meeting dates of City Council and all committees. This calendar will be provided to the local media and any other interested parties who request the information.

DELEGATED AUTHORITY

The Board of Police Commissioners has the authority to establish a meeting schedule.

Respectfully submitted,
